

Media Advisory- For Immediate Release

What: Media conference

When: 9:30am Monday October 6

Where: Alice Springs Town Council Lawns

Contact: Natalie Wasley- 0429 900 774

Radioactive Resistance Grows Following Central Australian Meeting

The Australian Nuclear Free Alliance, an independent network of Aboriginal, environmental and public health representatives has concluded a two-day national meeting in Alice Springs with a focus on halting uranium mining and nuclear waste dumping proposals.

Alliance members from communities directly affected by nuclear projects across Australia will highlight opposition to Energy Resources Australia's (ERA) underground uranium mining proposal in Kakadu, planned uranium mines across the country and the continuing debacle of radioactive waste management.

Contact: Natalie Wasley 0429 900 774 | natwasley@gmail.com